

astah System Safety

Design, Verify and Validate

Astah System Safety is a new modeling tool for safety-critical systems that supports system architecture modeling, system safety assessment and analysis.

This is for automotive domain industry with self-driving cars that work with SOTIF and ISO 26262, and aerospace, railways, defense, robotics and healthcare industries where the safety property is crucial and also who are interested in adopting Model-Based Systems Engineering(MBSE).

<https://astah.net/products/astah-system-safety/>